

HISTORY AND DEVELOPMENT

The National Honor Society was founded in 1921 by Edward Rynearson. His hope was to create an organization that would recognize and encourage academic achievement while developing other characteristics essential to citizens in a democracy. These ideals of scholarship, character, service and leadership remain as relevant today as they were in 1921.

Now, 100 years later, the National Honor Society has established a reputation for excellence among administrators, faculty members, students, parents, and residents of the school community. This reputation is the result of years of commitment on the part of everyone involved.

Membership is thus both an honor and a commitment.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, we are unable to have a dessert reception after the ceremony.
